

I believe we should keep the policy of shutting off cell phones when the cabin door is shut. This is one of the few times we don't have to listen to business deals being handled within ear shot. This is very disturbing and I believe they can wait until grounded again.